ALMA MATER

Where the sky is clear and blue,
Chautauqua High we come to you;
Name that's known afar and near
In our hearts we hold you dear:
Our love is true.

Where the gate stands open wide,
Teachers, students, side by side
Keep our standards ever high;
Our strong love will never die
Whate'er betide.

CHORUS

Hail, Oh Hail, Chautauqua,
Alma Mater dear;
We will always do our best,
Keep our school above the rest,
Chautauqua High.

Dedication

We the Senior Class of Chautauqua Central School dedicate this 1950 "Indian" to our principal, Mr. Turner, our yearbook advisor, Mr. Quinette, and our class advisor, Mr. Rice, as an expression of our gratitude for the many sacrifices which they have made to make possible what we hope is an enjoyable yearbook.

SENIORS

Senior Officers

The senior class officers for the year 1949-1950 were: President, Mary Lou Lillard; Vice President, Evelyn Frontuto; Secretary, Dorothy Bush; and Treasurer, Edmond Auge.

We served two suppers, a chicken supper at Ashville and a roast beef supper at Chautauqua. We sold magazines for the Curtis Publications Co., and we sold Betty Dixon candy at Christmas time. We had the concession at all home basketball games where we sold hot dogs, pop and potato chips.

Our biggest activity of the year was publishing the yearbook. Evelyn Frontuto was elected editor-in-chief, and Mary Lou Lillard business manager. Every senior co-operated in the publication of "The Indian."

- CLASS HISTORY -

It was September of 1937 when many nervous youngsters started in the first grade of a very large school. Of the original class only three continued on to graduate in 1950. They were Carol Colton, Joan Cadogan, and Edna Kranking. We were rather calm in this grade so teaching was relatively easy for Miss Maude Skinner. Still a little scared we went on to Mrs. Ruth Wheeler's second grade. Edna Kranking left us but promised to return some time in the future.

Most of the students agreed when we passed to Miss Marjorie Akin's third grade that the subjects had become more difficult. This year Dorothy Findley honored us by becoming a member of our class. In the fourth grade we had lots of fun. Catherine Samuelson enrolled with our group and Miss Felsing was our teacher. Then we passed under the supervision of Mrs. Garnett Johnson in the fifth grade where Franklin Hanson and Edmond Auge joined our present class.

How proud we were when promoted to the sixth grade room on the second floor near the high school department. Miss Elizabeth Alday found us mischievous though at times. In the seventh grade Mr. Ernest Cowles really worked to teach us mathematics. Seems as though there was someone at the board most of the time trying to find out the right way to do the hard problems. Peter Craig joined our progressing class and we had fun listening to his New York accent.

Next we were promoted to the eighth grade. Mrs. Lucille Carlson, our teacher, left early in the year and Mrs. Dora Hall, who is now teaching fourth grade, took over the assignment of finishing our preparation for high school. Again we had an addition to our class--Joyce Farrar from South Dayton.

We were all excited when we stepped into the study hall officially for the first time. We had many new students this year from Ashville. They were Mary Lou Lillard, Gaillard Bonsteel, Dorothy Mae Bush, Arlene Carlson, Earl Hilton, Duane Neil, Eleanor Jean Peterson, and Harold Town. Edna Kranking also re-joined our class. With coach Becker as our advisor and Arlene Carlson as class president, we sponsored a few dances. Near the end of this first year we had a roller skating party at Midway Park.

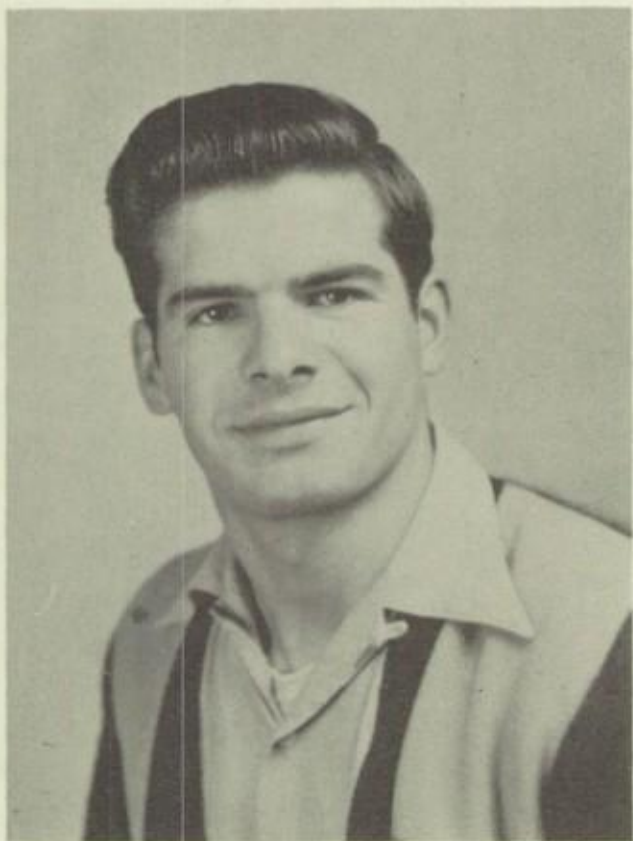

The sophomore year brought us a new president, Peter Craig, and a new advisor, Mr. Kyle Morse. We had an amateur show, and an exciting class party at Joan Cadogan's house, among other things. This was the year when Evelyn Frontuto entered our class.

In the junior year, Joan Cadogan was president and Mr. Vincent Ryan was our happy-go-lucky advisor. We sponsored a few dances, which included the May Day Dance with attendants from the seventh through the eleventh grades. From the twelfth grade were elected a King and Queen, Jim Barlow and Pat Bessey. We also sponsored a Junior-Senior Prom for the 1949 graduating class. Milton Hewes joined our evergrowing class this year.

We discovered that our senior year proved to be a very busy one. Our president, Mary Lou Lillard, and our advisor, Mr. Allen Rice, together with class cooperation put on two delicious dinners; one at Ashville which was a chicken dinner, and the other at Chautauqua where we served roast beef. We sold magazine subscriptions for the Curtis Publishing House, and Betty Dixon candy at Christmastime. The class had a concession at the home athletic games where hot dogs, potato chips, soft drinks, and candy were sold. Roy Tickner, last but not least, joined the class to graduate with us.

We feel that the seniors are well represented in extra curricular activities. There are six members in the Senior Honor Society of which Dorothy Mae Bush is president. There are some of our class in the Sportsmanship Brotherhood, and the Student Council, of which Duane Neil is president. The class is well accounted for in such activities as FHA, FFA, Hi-Y, Tri-Hi-Y, Chronicle Staff, school athletics, Band and Chorus. Our class also maintained the school's standards in scholarships.

During our last semester in school, with the help of Mr. Charles Quinette as advisor and Evelyn Frontuto as editor, we published this yearbook which we hope will remind future classes of our fond memories of Chautauqua Central School. We expect also that our friends, teachers and students alike, will continue to work together helping each other through hardships as thoughtfully as experienced by the class of 1950. Good luck and best wishes to all of you.

Prophecy

The date--June, 2000; the place--New York City; the event--dinner for people thought to be exceedingly outstanding in the past two decades. It is at this dinner that we find ourselves the unseen guests. Dr. Peter Craig, A.B.C.D., dean of men at the Julliard School of Music, speaks:

"Successful citizens, you are here because you have aspired to do great things and you have achieved or surpassed these aspirations. I think that no one, here or elsewhere, has performed greater services to the citizens of the world than Miss Evelyn Frontuto, Miss Mary Lou Lillard, Miss Eleanor Jean Peterson, and Miss Arlene Carlson in their outstanding work in the missionary and medicinal fields respectively. Miss Frontuto's and Miss Lillard's work of converting the people of the Chautauqua territory has been beyond recognition.

I am sure that you all would have wondered at my good sense had I failed to invite the persons who have made the biggest headlines of the last few years--Professor Roy Tickner and his note-worthy assistant, Miss Joan Cadogan, co-inventors of the NO bomb which has put an end to all zee-zoos. The presence of Mr. Harold Town, winner of the hot-rod race from Earth to Mars, needs no explanation.

The business world is represented by Miss Catherine Samuelson, the outstanding distributor of zee-zoos to the American public, and Mr. Edmond Auge, the founder and president of the world-reknowned Flying Saucer Rocket Bus Company.

We also have with us men outstanding in the field of agriculture. Mr. Duane Neil, the developer of the minkiken--a cross between a mink and a chicken, is present. He has made a fortune by selling fur and eggs. Mr. Franklin Hanson, the President's trusted adviser on agricultural problems, and Mr. Milton Hewes, the originator of the "All-for-Farmers Plan," are also present.

With us from the literary field we have Mrs. Harold Erickson née Dorothy Bush. Mrs. Erickson became famous with the publication of her recent book, "D. A. R." or "Darling, Always Remember."

The former Miss Joyce Farrar and the former Miss Dorothy Findley have achieved success. Miss Farrar in the field of hair styling (I've noticed many of the women here today are wearing some of her styles), and Miss Findley in the field of interior decorating.

No aggregation of famous people would be complete without a representative of the entertainment world. We have with us from this group the conductor of "Bonny's Bon Orchestra," Mr. Gailard Bonsteel himself, the "ge-gop" king.

Miss Carol Colton and Miss Edna Krinking, the next notables I shall discuss, have made names for themselves in the field of education. Miss Colton for completely revolutionizing the teaching profession by the development of the new progressive system of teaching, "The Colton System," and Miss Krinking for her outstanding success in teaching home economics to boys' classes.

Last and least conspicuous to the general public we have Mr. Earl Hilton who has unselfishly devoted his life to giving his loving care and a major portion of his time to the ex-teachers of Chautauqua High School who were driven to distraction by the class of 1950.

Apologies to all concerned,

Carol Colton

LAST WILL

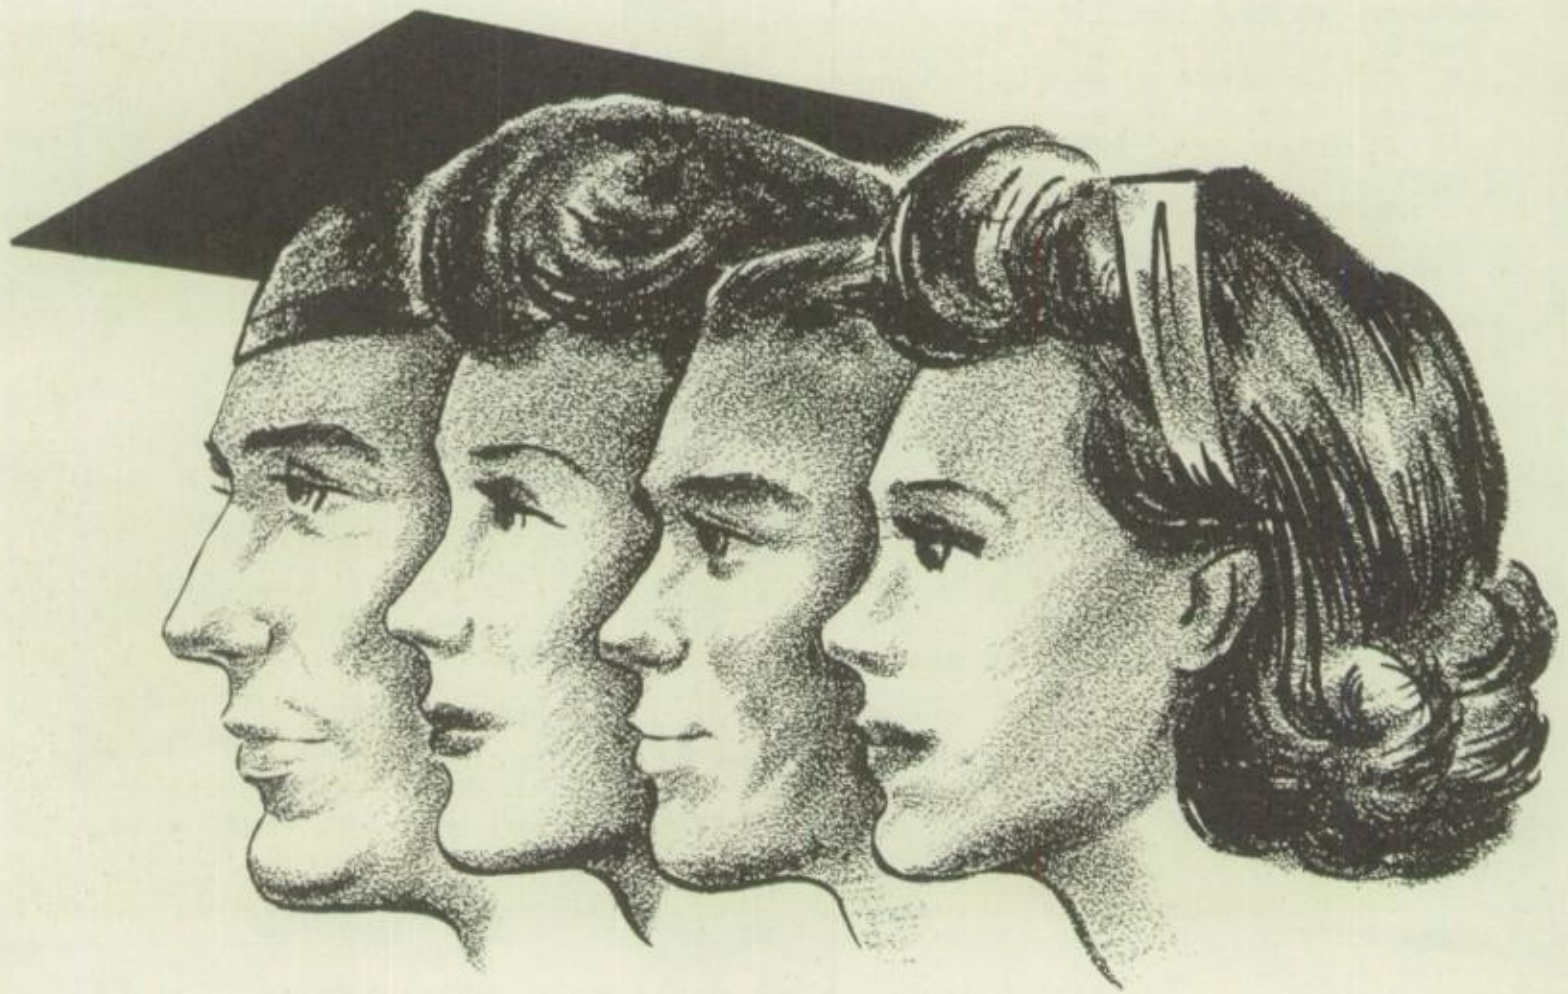

AND TESTAMENT

We, the 1950 Senior Class of the Central School at Chautauqua, in the County of Chautauqua and the State of New York, being of sound mind and memory, do make, publish and declare this our LAST WILL and TESTAMENT in the manner following, that is to say: We, the Class of '50, vacate our seats to all new students and direct that all of our just debts be paid by the class of '51.

- I, Franklin Hanson, do will and bequeath my ability to play baseball to Bert Henry Sears.
- I, Milton Hewes, do will and bequeath my height to Jimmy Rodwell.
- I, Roy Tickner, do will and bequeath my ability to do chemistry and math to Bill Cornell.
- I, Gaillard Bonsteel, do will and bequeath my ability to argue to Regis Ingerson.
- I, Mary Lou Lillard, do will and bequeath my position on the Chronicle staff to anyone who wants it.
- I, Dorothy Bush, do will and bequeath the piano bench in chorus to Norman Becker, Jr.
- I, Joan Cadogan, do will and bequeath my tongue that wags at both ends to Virginia Bouch.
- I, Joyce Farrar, do will and bequeath my aprons to Mrs. Johnson.
- I, Earl Hilton, do will and bequeath my ability to harmonize to Bill Lillard.
- I, Harold Town, do will and bequeath my reckless driving to Kathryn Underwood.
- I, Catherine Samuelson, do will and bequeath my ability to play basketball to Roy Rosen.
- I, Peter Craig, do will and bequeath my temper to Mabel Genaway.
- I, Eleanor Peterson, do will and bequeath my crocheting to Gerald Near.
- I, Duane Neil, do will and bequeath my long arms to Norma Williams.
- I, Carol Colton, do will and bequeath my good habits to Phyllis Stroebe.
- I, Edna Kranking, do will and bequeath my ability to cook to Bob Hagadorn.
- I, Evelyn Frontuto, do will and bequeath my giggle to Gordon Lewis.
- I, Dorothy Findley, do will and bequeath my quietness to Janet Stanford.
- I, Edmond Auge, do will and bequeath the catcher's mitt to Wilbur Neil.
- I, Arlene Carlson, do will and bequeath my Tri-Hi-Y secretary's book to Dick Langham.

We hereby appoint the Green Hornet executor, with full power and authority to prosecute all those who question the above statements.

Mayville Defeats C. C. S. In Hard-Fought Game

The Chautauqua Indians lost a heart-breaker to the Mayville Golden Eagles Nov. 22 at Mayville with a score of 30 to 27. With the score tied 8 to 8 at the end of the first quarter, the Indians suffered the loss of their ace forward, Archie Fisher, due to an eye injury. During the second quarter the Golden Eagles broke the tie by adding six more points to their score while the Indians stood still. Milt Hewes was high scorer with seven points.

With Archie back in the second half the Indians made a comeback, and at the sound of the final gun were trailing by only three points.

The Junior Varsity also lost to the Golden Eagles by a sad score of 21 to 12.

Basketball season is over and as we look back over the 1949-50 season, we should realize that our record of eight wins and six losses is really pretty good after all. In the first place we finished up just one game behind Frewsburg, the County "C" champs (by virtue of their victory over Forestville), and in the second place we improved greatly on last year's record. Last year we won one league game, a 33-27 edge over Sherman. That was the third game of the season and the only one we won all year.

C. C. S. Indians Scalp Bemus Point In Thriller

On Friday, Dec. 9, the George R. Raynor gym was the scene of one of the hardest fought and closest battles witnessed by the Maroon and White followers in many a moon. We can't say we had an easy time of it, for we had to fight and fight hard for every point that we scored.

The first quarter was a rather sluggish affair neither team showing any likeness of a championship club. However, we couldn't complain too much, for after the first eight minutes of play we held a 9 to 4 advantage. The second period was much like the first up until the last few minutes of the half when Bemus took over the scoring and dunked three quick baskets. This cut our half-time lead down to two points. The score was 13 to 11.

The second half of the ball game proved to be a real match. Probably because the teams seemed to be playing a better brand of ball. The Indians outscored Bemus 13 to 12 in the third quarter.

With a minute to play CCS held a five-point lead, but 40 seconds later the Red Dragons had whittled it to a single point. In those last 20 seconds the Pointers had only one open shot at the basket. Dave Fuller, a guard, maneuvered himself into an open spot in the corner and uncorked a one-handed pop shot. I could hardly hear myself think as the screaming crowd followed the flight of the ball. Fortunately the ball rolled around the rim and into the waiting arms of a Chautauqua player. When the final gun sounded Coach Becker's men still had possession of the ball. The final score stood at 32-31. Archie Fisher lead the way in the scoring department as he racked up 15 markers on six tosses from the field and three from the foul line.

The Bemus Point Junior Varsity outscored our little Indians 27-21.

Indians Bow To Burgers In 42-24 Court Contest

After winning two consecutive victories over Ripley and Bemus, the CCS Indians took a 42-24 beating at the hands of the fourth-place men of Frewsburg. Chautauqua's boys could not seem to get going on the second half as the burgers outscored us by 12 points in the third quarter. This seemed to be enough to put out the dim flame of hope still kindling in the CCS fan's hearts, for Frewsburg kept up the same scoring pace throughout the game.

The score at halftime was 16-13 in favor of Frewsburg.

Maroon and White Win Easily In Ripley Affray

away their first victory of the infant season Friday, Dec. 2, by an impressive 41 to 29 margin. The Indians, capitalizing on Ripley's sloppy ball handling and erratic defense racked up a 15 to 4 lead in the first quarter of play. Despite the loss of Milton Hewes' height during the second and third quarter, the team managed to keep 12 points ahead of the Eagles for the remainder of the game. Dick Lillard and Milt Hewes were both ousted in the last quarter on fouls. Archie Fisher was the leading scorer with 19 points, followed by Milt Hewes with 10.

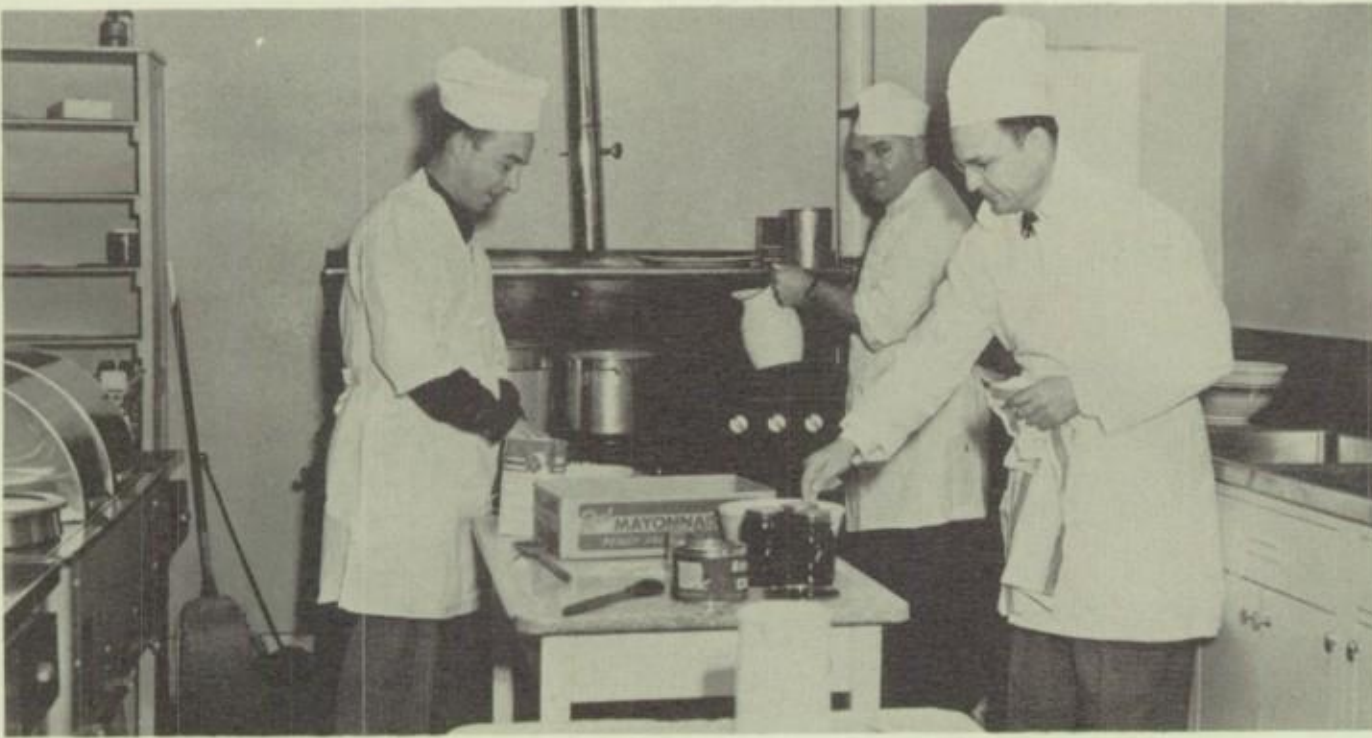

The first game of the twin killing saw our J. V.'s handing the little Eagles a 35 to 24 setback. Norm Becker, Jr., was the pacemaker as he scored 11 points. The win was the first of the year for the Junior Varsity, too.
